- FACC Updates
 - Silverthorne reached out for a joint meeting, and staff suggest a tour with Silverthorne Art Spot and their Art Commission- FACC suggested shooting for a Friday afternoon- staff to follow up with Silverthorne
 - Buskariachi- Daymon Pascual suggested ways to bring back music onto Main Street- provide wandering musicians to local restaurants and bring music onto Main Street- i.e. Silverheels, which used to do music, and maybe this would develop into a summer on the corner of each block festival. FACC did not direct staff to pursue this idea at this time.
 - Do a pop-up art class that is very informal- “stitch and bitch”, draw and sip, etc...
 - Directed staff to look at drawing- Focus on still life or figure (not nudes) drawing, beading, and textiles/knitting (knitting help- rather than even a full project)
 - FACC directed staff to come back with a budget for materials but would like to offer these pop-up classes for free.
 - Narrow the scope of any offerings
 - All ages welcome
 - Look at a storage space for donated art supplies
 - Staff to look at offering on Tuesdays or Wednesdays at the Frisco Adventure Park Day Lodge or the old community center on 3rd Avenue in 2024
- Staff updates
 - Update on addition of art to environmental assessment for the Frisco Backyard plan- Council has approved a $381,124 change order is requested to supplement the original $240,500 contract. FACC asked that SE Group add artful signs and other elements to the plan and not expand the scope. Staff was directed to just bring a sentence to leadership to add into the plan, “Aspire to incorporate culture and art in trail signage, educational materials, monuments and other communication elements, where effective and technically possible.”
 - Update on workflow/project tracking- FACC asked staff to move forward with a Google spreadsheet- only staff will have editing rights due to open meeting laws.
 - Marina idea for pumpkin carving event in 2024- FACC voiced supportive and would like to be involved; are interested in possibly breaking a Guinness World Record.
