  - Sound and Light Workshop Recap
    - Feedback survey sent out to participants
    - FACC members have been receiving thank yous and positive feedback
  - New Project Proposals:
    - Summit School District music and art needs discussion- FACC committed to working with other municipalities to fund needs. Staff to bring back inventory of needs.
  - Goal 4: RecPath Murals
    - Clarification on budget and size of murals- Stick with 7x20 and have eight (8) murals with just over a $20,000 budget
    - FACC directed staff to do a letter of interest in the next month
    - Applicants not limited to just local artists
- FACC updates
  - Andy Held recapped the county-wide meeting with local art boards, led by Town of Silverthorne at the Silverthorne Art Spot. Jamie Callahan also attended.
    - Want more communication and eliminate redundancy
    - Towns want to collaborate to support students in the school district with resources for art and music programs
    - Vanessa will reach out to Sydney at Silverthorne Art to determine school district needs and reconvene on the resources needed with all of the municipalities
    - Will have quarterly meetings
- Project Discussion
  - Goal 4: CDOT Tunnel Mural
    - Review and discuss submissions
      - Top choices to move forward with a different design and provide a $500 design fee with an April 10 deadline
        - Bimmer Torres- no visible faces, maybe hands

- Hilary Williams- More drawn to the salamander concept, like how magical it looks, love the colors but lighten it up as this already a very dark space, simplify the interior
    - Pat Milbury- no moose, we love your style, love the native flowers and not as enthusiastic about the animals, like the left 3rd of both tunnel entrance designs
  - Determine next steps- Jamie Callahan will connect with the three artists to share FACC feedback on designs
  - Story Corp style interviews/podcasts – Daymon brought this up as an idea and Megan brought up the idea of doing “second story” and bring this idea back for the next meeting
- Adjourn
